20 World-Famous IRIS

Given Away Absolutely FREE

The field in which these Iris are planted must be vacated, therefore this Free Plant Offer will hold good for a limited time only. These are all fine, strong 2 year old plants, in fact they will be about the finest that I have ever shipped out. They will be sent to you direct from my Iris Ranch at Grandview, Washington. The plants in this field have been divided into 6 groups, each group representing a nice color range and a flowering season of about 2 months. Each group includes early and late flowering varieties, Hardy Pogocyclus Hybrids, Autumn Flowering Iris, etc. This is the last opportunity to plant Iris for flowers this season.

COLLECTION No. 1

6 WORLD FAMOUS IRIS FREE

GUDRUN—42 in. Winner of the Dykes Memorial Medal. A top-notch white Iris and by many judges considered the finest of all. It is undoubtedly the largest and most massive white.

BLUE MONARCH—40 in. A magnificent soft blue of gigantic size with up to 15 flowers to a stem. One of the best of this color.

VALOR—50 in. Very fragrant. General color effect deep rich, blackish blue-violet. The largest, richest and finest of its type.

DESERT GOLD—32 in. fragrant, early flowering. An exceptionally fine free flowering soft yellow, which some authorities consider the best early flowering yellow.

ANDANTE—36 in. a rich amethyst violet with all of the shimmering beauty of a precious gem.

ANDELLA—32 in. Beautifully ruffled flowers of snow white, with a feather-stitched edging of bright rose. A perfect picture in the garden.

These will all be huge plants as fine as we have ever grown, each one properly labelled. You will receive them absolutely free if you will send me your check or money order for the following superb collection of 14 varieties for $2.85.

"GARDEN DELIGHT" COLLECTION

14 MAGNIFICENT IRIS $2.85

CALIFORNIA GOLD—36 in. I consider this the finest deep yellow Iris created to date and I think this is the general opinion of other authorities.

CONSTANCE MEYER—40 in. Winner of 2 Silver Medals. One of the best pink-toned irises originated to date.

AUTUMN HAZE—30 in. The largest and finest of the Autumn Flowering Iris, comparing in size with the giant Nene. In addition to flowering in the early Spring and again profusely in the fall it also has an exquisite violet fragrance.

DORAK—30 in. One of the fine Hardy Pogocyclus Hybrids. A delightful show Iris of gigantic size in soft violet and purple tones beautifully marked.

MAGENTA—36 in. Fragrant. A distinctively bright magenta color that always stands out among other Iris in any planting.

GRACE WAYMAN—34 in. A pansy-violet bicolor that is so brilliant that it makes others of the same class look dull by comparison.

CLARA NOYES—36 in. A notable novelty in the flame and yellow colors of the Talsman Rose.

COSETTE—26 in. Very early. In my opinion the finest early flowering white. A prodigious bloomer.

BRUNO—36 in. Petals so velvety that they look like fine plush. Color brownish red. Sold originally for $50.00 a plant.

AMMON—46 in. Very early. The earliest tall blue, flowering 2 weeks earlier than other tall blue iris.

CINNABAR—42 in. Awarded a Silver Medal by the American Iris Society. A uniform deep rich velvety dark red.

DEPUTÉ NOUBLOT—43 in. Winner of the Dykes Memorial Medal. Huge flowers in brilliant red tones.

GOLDEN FLARE—30 in. Silver Medal Winner. An unusual and attractive blending of yellow, red and electric blue.

DOLLY MADISON—36 in. Early. A most intriguing blend of soft pastel colors with a brilliant orange beard in striking contrast.

The 14 Varieties listed above, with the 6 Free Iris as listed, present catalogue value $4.30, will be sent to you on receipt of check or money order for only $2.85.

COLLECTION No. 2

6 SUPERB IRIS FREE

CROWN JEWEL—34 in. A delightful frilly Iris with a yellow ground, beautifully veined fiery red.

DAUNTLESS—40 in. Winner of the Dykes Memorial Medal. Sold for $35.00 a single plant just a few years ago. One of the finest and purest red tones.

CRYSTAL BEAUTY—50 in. A gorgeous new clear pure snow white of huge size, on stalks that are shoulder high.

ALICE HARDING—40 in. Winner of the Dykes Memorial Medal. A magnificent large primrose yellow with smooth satiny texture.

HYPATIA—30 in. An English introduction in the most intense pure blue that I have seen in any Iris.

GOLDEN BOW—30 in. Very early. In my opinion easily the best of all of the very early flowering deep yellows.

The above group all properly labelled will be given absolutely free if you will send your check or money order for the following collection of 14 gorgeous Iris for $2.65.

"CROWN JEWEL" COLLECTION

14 GORGEOUS IRIS — $2.65

JEAN CAYEUX—36 in. Winner of the Dykes Memorial Medal. One of the most distinctive colored and beautiful Iris, being a marvelous blending of havana and coffee brown.

INDIAN CHIEF—40 in. One of the most popular and one of the most outstanding of the brilliant red-toned irises.

AUTUMN ELF—18 in. A daintily colored Iris that blooms twice a year; early spring and again in the fall. Ruffled cream standards with flaring falls of soft lilac.

GENEVIEVE SEROUGE—42 in. An exquisite blending of soft pastel shades. A real 5 star variety.

JOYANCE—42 in. Winner of the Dykes Memorial Medal. A huge cream or ivory tone, with a golden halo at the throat.

LORD LAMBOURNE—40 in. Very early, exquisitely fragrant. Rich madder crimson falls with soft rose-fawn standards and amber styles.

GRAN—24 in. A very handsome wine colored Hardy Pogocyclus Hybrid with beautiful veining and markings.

EUPHONY—36 in. One of the best of the copper blends. Beautifully ruffled copper standards with falls flushed soft violet.

MADELINE BRUN—36 in. Early. A very lovely cool white of the greatest purity with heavy wax-like petals of satiny smoothness.

GLEAM—42 in. A glorified sky-blue, the color being uniform throughout. Extra large, perfectly formed flowers.

CASTOR—36 in. Silver Medal Winner. The white ground is almost completely covered with fine pin dots of deep violet.
